

Welcome to “Daisyburn Homestead”

Built in the 1930s this spacious Federation style homestead offers elegant, comfortable accommodation in a peaceful country setting.

The stylish décor emphasises comfort and quality and offers a moderate to high standard of accommodation to up to six guests. AAA Tourism * rating.

Located just over an hours drive from Melbourne at Glenaroua and equi-distant from the Hume Highway and the Northern Highway, “Daisyburn Homestead” is situated on 43 acres (17hectares) of farming land with views of the Tallarook Ranges. The towns of Seymour, Broadford and Kilmore are all in easy reach. The Puckapunyal Military Area is nearby.

“Daisyburn Homestead” provides the perfect base to explore the many and varied attractions of this beautiful rural setting including fresh water fishing, country drives and numerous outstanding wineries which are in close proximity. The drive to Bendigo takes about an hour. Heathcote, Nagambie Lakes, Tallarook, the Goulburn River and Mangalore Airport are also in the vicinity.

Alternatively you can relax on the sheltered veranda by the pool or sit by the fire and enjoy the quiet and the pleasing ambience of the lovely old homestead.

The homestead is licensed to sell liquor and drinks may be purchased between the hours of 2pm and 11pm. A selection of wines from local vineyards is available at reasonable prices.
